

Why does black granite fade?

Q. Why does black granite fade?

A. The answer is, black granite should not fade. Black granite imported from Asia is sometimes doctored with dyes and oils to darken the surface. The fading is nothing more than the dyes and oils being removed. You can discuss your concerns with your professional stone and tile contractor. If you do not yet have a PRO, contact us.

Online URL:

<https://surfacecarepros.com/kb/article/why-does-black-granite-fade-1019.html>