

My customer's marble vanity top continually gets small chips along its edges. What is the best solution?

You may want to recommend to your customer that having the edges rounded would help prevent further chipping. The edge can be rounded using a coarse diamond abrasive on a small electric hand machine. You can also put a profile on the edge using a router designed for use on stone.

Online URL:

<https://surfacecarepros.com/kb/article/my-customer-s-marble-vanity-top-continually-gets-small-chips-along-its-edges-what-is-the-best-solution-1058.html>