

Honing Polished Stone for Poultice Application

It is not necessary to hone a polished stone prior to applying a poultice but honing will open the pores of the stone allowing for increased dwell time of the chemical.

TIP If you hone the stone before applying the poultice make sure that the stone is thoroughly dry before polishing. If not the stone can develop a permanent darkening or lighten.

Online URL:

<https://surfacecarepros.com/kb/article/honing-polished-stone-for-poultice-application-926.html>