

Proper Disposal of Used Poultice

How you dispose of a used poultice will depend on what chemical you used in the poultice. The MSDS should tell you how to dispose of the chemical.

MSDS is an abbreviation for Material Safety Data Sheet. The MSDS will contain safety information, emergency phone numbers as well as disposal instructions. You should always request an MSDS when purchasing any chemicals. In fact, you are mandated to have MSDS sheets on all chemicals on your truck.

Online URL:

<https://surfacecarepros.com/kb/article/proper-disposal-of-used-poultice-929.html>